

Sponsored by:

3rd London Proteomics Discussion Group Meeting

Wed 4th March - 12-5.30 pm

Chandler House (B02), Bloomsbury, UCL (Map below)

--12.00 pm-- -----Lunch and refreshments available-----

12.30 pm Talk 1, Plenary: "The undiscovered country - new challenges in spatial and high-throughput Proteomics"

Dr Roman Fischer, Target Discovery Institute, University of Oxford

1.15 pm Talk 2: "ATM or mTOR signalling networks cooperate in response to DNA damage to promote resistance of leukaemia cells to chemotherapy"

Dr Pedro Casado, Barts Cancer Institute, Queen Mary University of London

---1.45 pm--- -----Refreshment break-----

2.00 pm Methods challenge

3.00 pm Talk 3: "Thermal Profiling Methodologies in Target Deconvolution"

Dr. Jennifer Ward, University of Oxford

3.30 pm Talk 4: "Label free phosphoproteomics to dissect cancer cell signalling"

Dr Pedro Cutillas, Barts Cancer Institute, Queen Mary University of London

---4.00 pm--- -----Refreshment break-----

4.10 pm Presentation by YPIC 'EuPA - Young Proteomics Investigators Club'

4.20 pm Presentation by ClusterMarket

4.30 pm Methods challenge conclusion, judging & prizes

--5.00 pm-- -----Pizza & drinks-----

~5.30 pm Post-meeting refreshments at a nearby pub (location TBC)

